

I can write a newsbreak

Use the writing frame below to help you plan and organise your newsbreak.

Structure	Model text	Your ideas
Introductory sentence -when did it happen? -what happened? -where did it happen?	We are interrupting this programme to announce that dragons have been sighted over Kea.
More information -add detail	At lunchtime, police were disturbed to see an adult Cornish Ridgeback sweeping over the city.
Human interest -reactions -what people have seen	Local residents have been warned to keep away from windows as these venomous pests have been known to smash windows when hungry. Residents have claimed that baby dragons have been seen breaking out of their shells.
Quote	"We found a nest of baby dragons chewing on a black bin bag of rubbish..."
Reaction of those in charge	The council is concerned that this could lead to a dragon infestation.
When will we hear more?	Further updates during the six o'clock news.

This morning/afternoon/ evening ...

A report has come in from ...

A dragon has been ...

There have been reports of ...

A dragon has been ...

Residents described ...

Residents saw/heard/noticed ...

One resident said that ...

The police are ...

