

Big Write Day

On Wednesday 24th April, the whole school took part in our "BIG WRITE" Day. Our theme was "Toys" and the children chose which writing genre they wanted to work with. Foundation made their own lift the flap book based on "Dear Zoo" and Year 1 composed their own toy poem based on Trevor Millum's poem "What's In The Box?". Mr Carey's group wrote some exciting "Toy Stories" and Mrs Green's group wrote instructions for board games that they had made for wet playtimes. Miss Reeve's group wrote some poems using rich, descriptive vocabulary and Mrs D's group created iMovie trailers for toy themed films. Mrs Baker's group found a box full of toys and wrote some excellent newspaper reports about their discovery and Mrs Morgan's group recreated some Winnie the Pooh stories.

It was a wonderful celebration of writing at Kea School!

Triathlon Success

The tri season began in earnest this weekend with the first event in St Ives. Matilda, year 3, Poppy M, Poppy S and Ivy in year 4, and Freya in year 6 all performed fantastically swimming, cycling and running on what was a difficult, fiddly and hilly course. All the girls did amazingly and showed real resilience and strength of character. Whilst all the girls did brilliantly, Matilda, who finished second in the U8 category did particularly well and picked up a finalists' medal. The girls will take part in a sea swim triathlon in Newquay next month. If you are interested in taking part in this years triathlons visit the IntoTri website (<https://intotri.com/>) for more information

Walking Success

Well done to Florence year 5 and Bea year 3 who both decided to take part in a sponsored walk which was their own idea having seen the charity Information.

The walk took place on Saturday 13th April. They walked 16.3miles along the River Fal from Grampound to St Mawes.

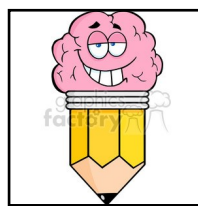

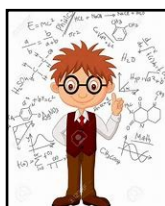

They have so far raised £1250 including gift aid for Toilet Twinning and Water Aid.

KS2 DT

KS2 will be making simple stuffed toys for DT this term. If anyone has any old hollow fibre (not feather) cushions they would like to recycle for stuffing, please can they be left in the school reception. Many thanks
