

When naming and describing them, think about what the eggs remind you of...

Examples of eggs found without descriptions

Please feel free to design your own.

Could the colours/design be linked to a particular habitat or country?

