

Strands	RE KPIs for key stage 2 - please refer to all past/present focus religions so the children make the comparisons between several religions/faiths.
	Year 3 - Judaism	Year 4 - Sikhism	Year 5 - Hinduism	Year 6 - Islam
Beliefs, Teaching and Sources	I can say something that I have learned from a religious story e.g. The Good Samaritan reminds us to be kind and helpful.	I can name religious stories that are still celebrated today and say why.e.g Sikhs remember that Guru was released from prison and Hindu's remember that good won over evil and celebrate this at Diwali.	I know that some religious stories are used to answer puzzling questions. e.g. The various Creation Stories are a way to explain how the world began.	I can discuss how and why some religious stories are used to provide answers to difficult questions, e.g. Why is the creation story told through so many different religions?
Practices and ways of life	I can name some similarities and differences between Christianity and Judaism. E.g. Compare places of worship, celebrations, or religious books. Hindus make offerings to the statues of their gods,	I can name some similarities and differences between Christianity, Judaism and Sikhism E.g. Compare places of worship, celebrations, or religious books.	I can use the right religious words to compare Hindu, Sikh and Christian practices e.g. Naam Jaap- Sikh meditation compared to Christian prayer or confession. Also the differences between alone and communal worship.	I can name some religious practices that are an important part of people's lives. e.g. .Muslims must visit Mecca and pray 5 times daily as part of the 5 pillars.
Forms of Expression	I can use the right religious words to describe religious symbols-e.g. Crucifix, Star Of David, Name the Jewish religious clothing -tallit (prayer shawl),name Sikh 5 Ks	I can say how some religious symbols are used in worship.e.g Crucifix used in prayer to remind Christians about Jesus' resurrection, Sikhs wear the 5Ks.	I can compare similarities and differences between different religious symbols - Compare religious symbols found in Churches and Hindu Temples.	I can compare similarities and differences between different religious symbols and prayer. I can explain how and why they are use. How are Islamic places of worship / prayer /symbols different to Christian or Hindu?
Identity and Belonging	I can compare my feelings with a character's feelings in a religious story. E.g. How did Moses feel when he crossed the Red Sea?	I can say how people practice their religious beliefs e.g. Compare these ceremonies: naming, weddings, baptisms and funerals.	I can say how people practice their religious beliefs and draw my own conclusion e.g. compare Christian's visiting Church on Sunday, to Hindu's home shrines.	I can find out how religious worship can make some people feel.e.g Regular church goers may feel a sense of belonging to their church community.
Meaning, Purpose and Truth	I can say something that I believe in and something a friend believes in e.g. Do they believe in God? Heaven?	I can list some similarities and differences between what I believe in and what my friend believes in e.g. I think, they think...what do you think. What is your creation story?	I can compare my beliefs with those of another religion e.g. I believe that God made the world, what do Hindu's believe?	I can discuss and show respect for the differences between my beliefs and those of another religion e.g. I believe that God made the world, what do Muslims believe?
Values and Commitments	I can say how I can make someone else feel happy if they are sad. E.g. Play with someone who is feeling lonely.	I can say how religious stories can help people to make the right choices. e.g. Christians may help someone they don't really like after reading "The Good Samaritan".	I can say how people's religious beliefs can affect the opinions they have.e.g Christians may worry about how Christmas is celebrated today should we focus more on the birth of Jesus?	I can compare and discuss how a religious story might affect my opinions and respect that other people's views may differ to mine.
