Year 5 Homework:
26.03.21

Well done for a great week Year 5.
For maths this week:
Please use your skill in rounding to answer these questions. Remember to read the question carefully and remember the rule.

| John has 8937 stickers. How many stickers does he have to the nearest 1000? | 2. For each of these numbers, write five numbers that can be rounded to it when rounded to the nearest 500 . |
| :---: | :---: |
|  |  |
| Which number below is the answer to 83,420 rounded to the nearest 1000? | Big Ben is about 9600 cm tall. What is the height to the nearest 1000 cm ? |
| 83,000 83,400 84,000 |  |
| Jenny rounds the number 6592 to the nearest 1000. She says her answer is 6,600. Spot her mistake. | What is 234,322 rounded to the nearest 100,000? |
| Harry says that 33,678 rounded to the nearest thousand is 30,000 . Is he correct? | The answer is 400. What could the question be if I have rounded to the nearest 100? Give 3 possible answers. |

Relative Clauses

1. Underline the relative clause in each of these sentences.
a) Jamie, whose mother had forbidden him to enter the forest, quickly rode his bike home.
b) Tomorrow morning, when the sun is rising, we will head out on our hike.
c) Georgia, with her brother Tom, played in the swimming pool all afternoon.
2. Tick to indicate whether these sentences include relative clauses or not.

| Sentences | Relative clause | No relative clause |
| :---: | :---: | :---: |
| I've just read The Hobbit, which was written by J.R.R. Tolkien. |  |  |
| Where are you going on holiday this year? |  |  |
| My friend, whose name is Simon, is petrified of scary films. |  |  |
| When will arrive at the party? |  |  |

3. Convert each pair of sentences into one sentence, making sure you use the relative pronoun indicated in the brackets.
a) Buckingham Palace is in London. The Queen lives there. (where)
b) At 12.30 pm it is time for lunch. The bell rings. (when)
c) Jason loves football. He is my next door neighbour. (who)

Challenge!

For each of these sentences, circle the correct relative pronoun. Whose or who's? Take care! Who's is a contraction for who is or who has.
a) Charles Dickens, (whose/ who's) a famous English author, was born in Portsmouth.
b) Jenny, (whose/ who's) dad owns a local restaurant, invited us over for dinner.
c) My baby brother, (whose/ who's) just turned five, is having a party at the weekend
d) Francis, (whose/ who's) favourite lesson is PE, is my best friend.

