

WANTED!

£50,000

Evidence

Extreme caution is advised where there are patches of scorched grass and the charred remains of trees. Likewise, avoid at all costs, places which smell of burning. For now, the cruel beast appears to be targeting farms in Fanghorn Forest area- but for how long?

-DRACO IGNIS-

The fire-breathing menace is quickly adding to its list of lethal crimes- please report any sighting to the 'Dragon Watch'.

Description

Members of the public are asked to report this dragon. It is:

- 30ft in length and 60ft in height
- Has an olive, reptilian scaled back with a smooth sage underbelly
- Razor-sharp claws, large enough to pick up a fully-grown cow and sharp enough to rip through a roof
 - Pointed spikes covering the entirety of its back
 - Intelligent yet cruel eyes
- Please be extra vigilant as it has skeletal wings, which when unfolded, are as wide as a bus

Crimes

This deadly creature appears to be gaining confidence as crimes committed are now on a daily basis. Crimes include:

- Complete devastation of Alpha Farm
- The stealing of Truro Major's jewels
- Complete annihilation of the cattle belonging to Kea Farm
