

Home Learning-Afternoon Activities

Week beginning: Monday 6th July 2020

Subject - Humanities

Question:

What do we call water in different places?

Introduction

How do rivers change?

Watch the clip then discuss the labels on the diagrams below.

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/teach/class-clips-video/geography-ks1--ks2-rivers/z6qsf4j>

What can you find out by re-watching the clip and listening out for the words on the diagrams below.

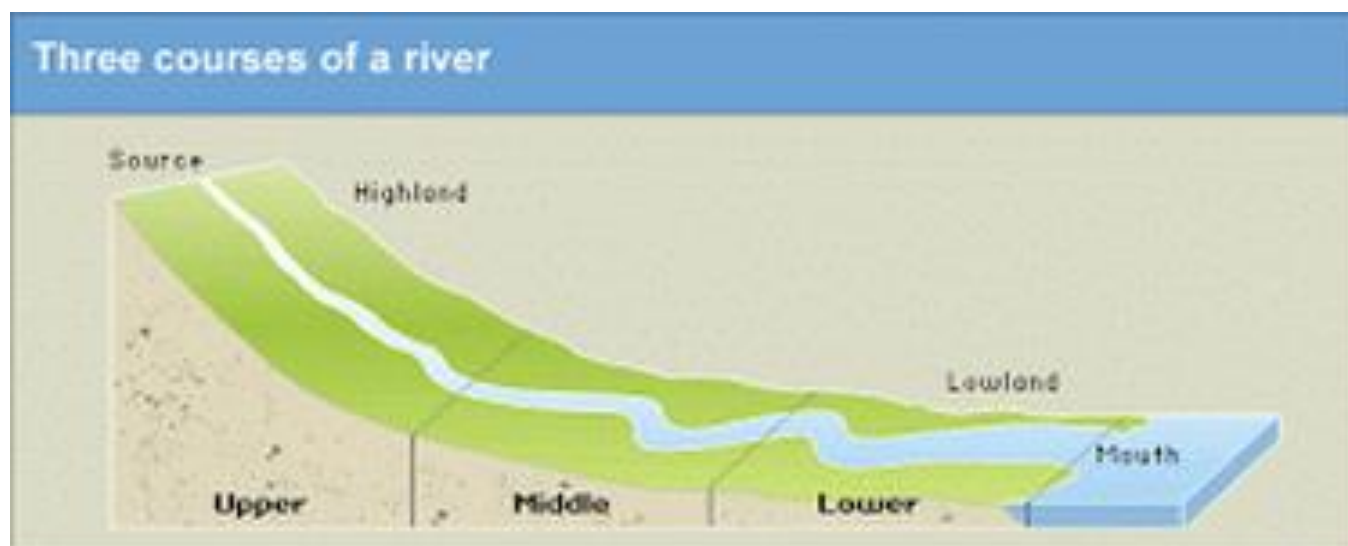

Draw your own river diagram complete with labels, and explain how the water can be called different things on the way down. (from source and mouth)

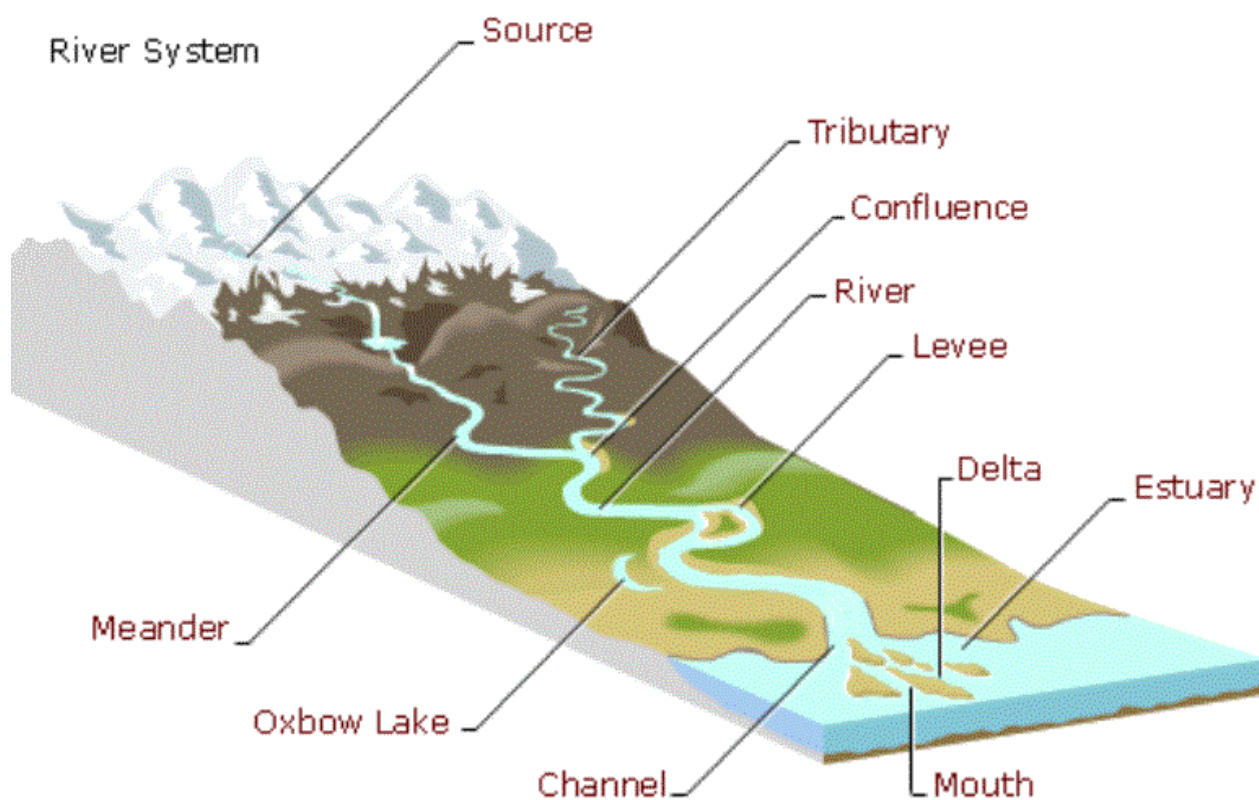

World Rivers
ppt.ppt

Use this PowerPoint for further research if you would like a challenge

(Slightly easier)

(Slightly harder)

Younger Children

Older Children

Rivers of the World

How many of these rivers have you heard of?

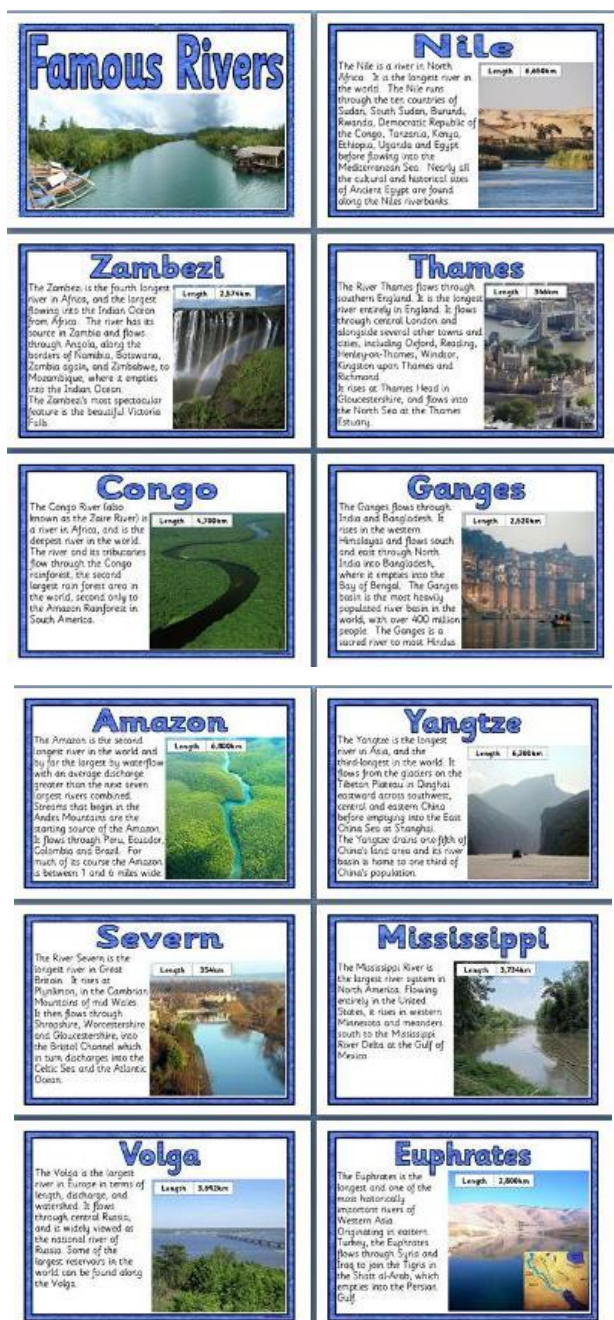

Try to use an atlas or the internet or ask a grown up to help you find out where these famous rivers are in the world.

Local Rivers

Load the web page and investigate how many rivers we recognise or can locate Click on different rivers chosen by the children to create fact files of Cornish rivers
https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/List_of_rivers_in_Cornwall

Try to show where the river is on a map or a globe if you have one.

You can draw a picture your favourite one.

- name and locate counties and cities of the United Kingdom, geographical regions and their identifying human and physical characteristics, key topographical features (including hills, mountains, coasts and rivers), and land-use patterns; and understand how some of these aspects have changed over time

Challenge:

Make a model river course.

Use the diagrams and website links from this plan (you can use any of them or Google a river course as well). Make sure you have someone with you before you use the Use an old box, cut it down, use card or paper, fabric or crepe paper, tissue paper or tinfoil, whatever you have to shape a river model.

Make sure you ask permission before you pinch any materials your grown ups might need for something else though, please!