

The Great Truro High Bake Off

Could your child be the next Mary Berry or Paul Hollywood? Do we have any budding junior masterchefs waiting to reveal their culinary expertise? Truro High School is holding their Bake Off competition for the second year. The contest is open to girls and boys from Years 5 and 6 to take part.

Round one will take place at Kea School and competitors are invited to bring in six shaped and flavoured bread rolls for judging by a judge from Truro High School and a Kea School Governor on Thursday 23 March. Judging is anonymous so children's names MUST be put on the bottom of your entry (the container or plate you bring your rolls in/on) so names are not visible to the judges. Good luck to everyone who decides to enter the competition.

Foundation Class

It is great to see the progress of children in Foundation Class with their writing. Many children are keen to write at every opportunity – so much so that this week Lola-Rose and Scarlet have written their own books. The girls were thrilled to read their stories to the staff in the school office. Well done girls!

St Piran's Day - 6 March 2017

 As part of our RE Curriculum, we will be celebrating St Piran's Day on Monday 6 March and would like the children to come to school in any combination of the Cornish colours - black, white and gold. The children will be taking part in a range of Cornish workshops, such as making cream teas, re-creating the story of St Piran, designing and making Cornish themed bunting, researching the Cornish cough and learning "Trelawny". The kitchen will be serving beef or cheese and onion pasties on this day. Children can book their choice of pasty at morning registration.

Non School Uniform Day - Friday 10 March 2017

On Friday 10 March there will be a whole school non-school uniform day in exchange for a donation of a Easter themed chocolate, for the Kea School Friends Easter bingo evening, which is being held on Friday 17 March at 7.00 pm in the school hall. A letter and booking form for the bingo was sent home on Thursday.

World Book Day - 2 March 2017

We will be celebrating World Book Day on Thursday 2 March. We would like the children to dress up as an "adjective". They could be "sparkly", "silly", "colourful" or "heroic". Let their imagination flow!

We will use their adjectives to create a range of exciting stories, which we will share in school and on the school website. We look forward to seeing some imaginative adjectives.

Weekly Attendance Figures

The attendance target set by the government is 95%. Kea School's attendance figures for week ending 10 February 2017: Whole school - 94.03% Foundation Class - 97% Year 1 - 93.33% Year 2 - 92.26% Year 3 - 97% Year 4 - 93.67% Year 5 - 90% Year 6 - 95% Well done Year F, 3 & 6

Polwhele House Inter-School Cross-Country - Saturday 25 March 2017

The school office has the entry form for anyone wishing to take part in the above event. There are races for U13, U11 and U9's. Please note this is a multi-terrain race and runners are advised to wear running spikes or football boots. Registration is at 9.30 am and we need a parent to volunteer to be the team manager to register the team on the day and give details of any changes to the team sheet. Please let the office know if can help with this and if your child wishes to be entered.
