

The Great British Year 4 Christmas Bake-off

As you saw on last week's homework, for the class marble treat this half term, the children have chosen to have a GREAT BRITISH YEAR 4 BAKE OFF! We plan to hold this event on Monday 13th December. Due to our current COVID guidelines, cooking in school is a bit tricky, so we would love you to bring in your own bakes from home (These will not be shared amongst children). This links really well with our current English work as it will give you all the chance to follow a set of instructions for your cooking. We don't need anything super adventurous, some biscuits or a simple sponge would be amazing! If you will be unable to bring something in, don't worry, There will also be a biscuit decorating competition (biscuits and icing provided) on the day! The biscuits will be egg and milk free to accommodate allergies.

Your bakes will then be judged by our very special celebrity guest judges, Paul (Moyes) Hollywood and Prue (Anglilly) Leith!!! Unfortunately the host, Noel (Barritt) Fielding is vegan so will be unable to sample the delicacies, but is very much looking forward to announcing bake-off champions!
